WITH PRIOR APPROVAL from the AFM Board of Directors, groups may sell items to fundraising at the market. Since this is a “make it or grow it” market, these items must be original, homemade, and not in competition with market food vendors. Please tell us what you plan to display/offer, including any items you’d like to sell at the market (including prices), and whether or not you plan to solicit/accept donations at the market:

The applicant signature (below) acknowledges that s/he has read, understands, and agrees to abide by the terms of the AFM Rules of Operation. The Ashland Farmers Market, its Board of Directors, and its members, agents, and volunteers, the Ashland Redevelopment Authority, the Town of Ashland and any of its agents are not responsible for any damage. Although insurance is not required, it is recommended.
